

Rosburn Collegiate Student Wins Award

Rosburn Collegiate student Cody Koloski has been awarded second place in the Artwork category for his entry "Diversville" in the React to Racism Youth Challenge. To view his entry visit <http://enter.reacttoracism.ca/entry/1550170>.

Cody is invited to attend the React to Racism Youth Forum on March 21, 2013 at the University of Winnipeg to receive his prize and participate in the forum. This interactive day, attended by 100 students from across the province, will include speakers talking about the impacts of systemic and individual racism, and focus on facilitated discussion with the students at table groups about how we can end racism in Manitoba.

React to Racism is the result of a partnership between the University of Winnipeg, the Newcomers Employment and Education Development Services Inc. (NEEDS), the Treaty Relations Commission of Manitoba (TRCM), Ma Mawi Wi Chi Itata, Seven Oaks School Division, the Manitoba Association of Rights and Liberties (MARL), Ka Ni Kanichihk, the Coalition of Municipalities Against Racism and Discrimination, Manitoba Education and Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada.
