

May 19, 2021

COVID Notification Hamiota Collegiate

We received notification that a Hamiota Collegiate student has tested positive for COVID. The student has not been in attendance since May 7 so there is no risk of school transmission. This is in addition to two previous school cases noted separately on May 9 and May 11.