

Nutrition

Park West School Division recognizes its responsibility to encourage healthy lifestyles and acknowledges the important role that nutrition plays in the total development and performance of the individual. Schools in Park West School Division have a responsibility to foster and support healthy eating practices by providing education about proper nutrition and offering nutritious foods in canteens.