

Public Solicitation in the Schools

No organization, community group or individual shall solicit funds through school fund raising campaigns, unless approved by the principal.

Commercial or political advertising material shall not be distributed through the school unless it is deemed to be of educational value. All distribution of commercial or political advertising materials must have the approval of the principal.

No member of the public shall be permitted to circulate materials or petitions in a school without the approval of the principal.